

Genres and Subgenres

Action	Focuses on life or death and emphasizes physical events. Subgenres: Man vs. State; Man vs. Nature; Man vs. Man; Man vs. Time.
Crime	Emphasizes bringing criminals to justice and preserving safety. Subgenres: Detective, Murder, Cozy, Historical, Noir, Paranormal, Procedural, Organized Crime, Caper, Courtroom, Newsroom, Espionage, Prison.
Horror	Focuses on life or death by pitting a person against a monster. Subgenres: Uncanny, Supernatural, Possession, Ambiguous.
Love	Addresses the love or hate within family, fraternal, and romance. Subgenres: Courtship, Marriage, Obsession.
Morality	Shows protagonist going beyond self to promote the well-being of others. Subgenres: Punitive, Redemption, Testing.
Performance	Emphasizes the protagonist's use of strengths and need for approval. Subgenres: Art, Business, Music, Sports.
Society	Shows a subjugated people rebelling against their subjugators. Subgenres: Biographical, Domestic, Historical, Women's Struggles.
Status	Emphasizes an individual's ranking in society and self-respect. Subgenres: Admiration, Pathetic, Sentimental, Tragic.
Thriller	Focuses on the protagonist defeating the evil antagonist to restore safety. Subgenres: Child in Jeopardy, Espionage, Financial, Hitchcock, Journalism, Legal, Medical, Military, Political, Psychological, Serial Killer, Woman in Jeopardy
War	Shows a soldier's internal change and the war's external savagery. Subgenres: Pro-war, Anti-war, Brotherhood.
Western	Focuses on the self-reliant individual's independence and connection to society. Subgenres: Professional, Traditional, Transition, Vengeance.
Worldview	Highlights the protagonist's yearning to understand self and strengths. Subgenres: Disillusionment, Education, Maturation, Revelation.

