

The Six Types of Character Conflicts

01

Character vs. Self

The character wrestles with opposing desires and beliefs.

02

Character vs. Character

Characters conflict because of their opposing viewpoints..

03

Character vs. Society

The character's worldview differs from those who surround him.

04

Character vs. Nature

The character conflicts with some aspect of nature.

05

Character vs. Supernatural

The character faces a spirit or monster of superior or unknown power.

06

Character vs. Technology

The character conflicts with a machine or an electronic device.

Key Principle

Conflict forces characters to face their flaws.

For example, to achieve the story's external goal, the chief character must first recognize and then make some needed internal change, such as overcoming a fear, a desire, a belief, or an emotion.
